Topic: Engagement at the Local

I am a Christian Texan American.

I am a wife, daughter, sister, sister-in-law, aunt, cousin, niece, and friend.

I am a journalist turned business lawyer, and an amateur photographer enthusiast.

I have served in elected and appointed positions in the City of Pearland, and been a competitive Republican Congressional candidate.

I am an athlete, and avid reader.

I am a student of life, human nature, and history.

I am as comfortable in a dress and heels as I am in jeans, boots and a baseball cap.

I like riding motorcycles, the camaraderie of biker bars, and playing golf on manicured courses.

I admire self-reliant persons who dream big, take action, live by the Golden Rule, and succeed.

While I am much more, this glimpse lends perspective to the voice and thought behind this website. My hope is that readers appreciate the perspective, and that it might educate, inform, enlighten, and even persuade.
